

Underdown-Thompson Vows Repeated in Church Service

The two young sisters of the bride played important roles in the marriage last Saturday afternoon of Miss Charlene Underdown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Underdown, 18520 Roslyn Ave., and Thomas Thompson, son of Mrs. Retha Rush of Elyria, Ohio, and the late Frank Thompson. The wedding was solemnized at the First Congregational Church in Redondo.

Pamela Underdown, four-year-old sister, wearing a lavender nylon frock carried the two rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow and Darlene Underdown, eight years old, sang "True Love" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Norman Coster at the piano.

The Rev. C. T. Walberg officiated at the marriage before a flower banked altar.

The bride approached on the arm of her father. She wore a Chantilly lace and tulle waltz-length gown. A three-stranded pearl tiara held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids encircled by baby pink rosebuds.

Miss JoAnne Carter wearing blue crystalline and a corsage of pink carnations was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Lucille Brown and Dolores Alexander. They were also in blue crystalline and wore pink corsages.

Wayne Anderson stood as best man and ushers were John Brown and John Underdown.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the Arteria home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hadjes. Guests were registered by Wayne Underwood and James Yeager.

The couple have taken an apartment on Madrid Ave. until the bridegroom is discharged from the United States Navy in October. They will then go to Ohio to make their home.

The bride was graduated from North High School in June 1957. Her husband is a graduate of the Elyria, Ohio, High School.

Church Units Slate Festival

First major event on the fall agenda for the United Foursquare Women of Southern California is a Festival of Music to be sponsored by chapters in the Torrance area.

Proceeds from the season's initially launched project are slated to purchase books for the denomination's L.I.F.E. Bible College library located in Los Angeles, added Mrs. VomSteege. Tickets, she said, are available through the UFW chapter in the Torrance Foursquare Church.

Mrs. Paula Colclasure, 1511 W. 204th St., divisional representative for the Centinela district, is cooperating with Mrs. VomSteege in the organization's projects promoted throughout this community.

Mrs. VomSteege revealed further that Oct. 9 has been designated World Day of Prayer among UFW chapters across the nation. Fall coffee and luncheon membership drive programs in the Southern California area are scheduled for the last two weeks in October, with members of the Bay and Centinela divisions uniting Oct. 17 at the South La Brea Foursquare Church.
